The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 4,7,8,10,12-14 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification as originally filed does not provide support for each ends of a first cable being coupled to one leg of a leg unit, as set forth in claims 4 and 7.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-3,5 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Pollock. Pollock shows biasing means 50,50'.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 24 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pollock. To substitute conventional metal strand for his cable means 50,50' to enable a strong flexible cable means, would have been an obvious mechanical expediency.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pollock in view of Bufogle. Pollock shows the claimed ladder with the exception of the over center linkage. Bufogle shows an over center linkage at 22,23,27. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide Pollock with an over center linkage, in lieu of his, as taught by Bufogle, for spreading his leg units. Furthermore, Pollock's linkage is an over center linkage although he is silent on the naming of his linkage as the construction of his linkage is commonly known as over center locking linkage.

Claims 15,16,18 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pollock in view of either Payne or Wittliff. Pollock shows the claimed ladder with the exception of X-shaped cable brace being connected at an apex. Both Payne and Wittliff show a cable braces being connected at an apex to enhance tensioning. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the cables 50,50' of Pollock to be connected, as taught by either Payne or Wittliff, to enhance tensioning.

Claims 11,17 and 21 are allowable over the prior art.

Applicant's election of fig.1 in the reply filed on 12.2.04 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Applicant's arguments filed 3.21.05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. With respect to the means for biasing, it is unclear if applicant is invoking 35USC 112, sixth paragraph, as applicant merely states that the claims are presented in such format. Is applicant invoking 35 USC 112, sixth paragraph? Pollock's spreading means 32,34 and stabilizing means 50,50' are equivalent spreading and biasing means as disclosed by Applicant, thus Pollock meets the claimed invention.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL.

See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
